A military train with an auxiliary locomotive and without tail sign passed through Graefenhainichen (N 52/E 25) proceeding in the direction of Bitterfeld (N 52/E 14). The train consisted of flatcars and flatcars with side-racks, loaded with about 80 large boxes, and one boxcar occupied by escorting soldiers.*

* Comment: It cannot be determined whether the train is a Soviet Air Force shipment as the boxes are not described and their contents not reported. It is assumed, however, that the boxes contained disassembled aircraft. The destination of the shipment is not known.
